LOCATION

The town of Peñíscola is today one of the most important tourist destinations in the Spanish Mediterranean.

It is located 150 km from Valencia and 200 km from Barcelona, perfectly connected by road via the AP-7 motorway and the N-340 main road, and by air through the airports of Reus, Valencia and Barcelona.

PEÑÍSCOLA · CASTELLÓN

The Castle, built by the Templars in the 13th century and home to Benedict XIII, the “Pope Luna”, is the main attraction for all visitors who come to this town with a strong seafaring tradition.

Its walled old town, overlooking the sea on a rocky headland, and the Playa Norte at its feet make Peñíscola an unbeatable destination to combine competition and tourism.
